

CAREERS

CAREERS WITH AMERICAN SPECIALTY

American Specialty is consistently in search of talented, dedicated professionals who, through the application of individual strengths, experience, and contributions, desire to make a difference in the continued growth and overall success of our organization.

American Specialty is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

CURRENT OPPORTUNITY

Loss Prevention Specialist

Date Posted: 03/23/2017

POSITION DESCRIPTION:

Essential Role Responsibilities:

- Perform on-site facility inspections and operational evaluations
- Review and assess facility policies/procedures/training manuals
- Develop reports detailing evaluation results
- Professional interaction with clients, including executives, facility operators, and brokers
- Research and develop risk management materials, including safety checklists, safety bulletins, and standard operating procedures manuals

Key Requirements:

- Extensive travel – 80/100 days annually (est.)
- Client interfacing
- Solid relationship building and communication skills
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office
- Strong writing skills
- Team player is critical
- Firm understanding of safety and operations

This is a full-time position with benefits, located onsite (preferably) in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

If you possess the necessary qualifications and have interest in applying for this position with American Specialty, please submit your resume, cover letter and salary requirements via email to: mreukauf@americanspecialty.com.

