

What special feels like.

American
Specialty

// We have learned that the more we listen and respond to what our agents need, the more successful we will become as a company."

Drew Smith
PRESIDENT OF AMERICAN SPECIALTY

/ From coverage to claims, we make it easier.

Like you, we think America's special moments are worth insuring.

With over 30 years working in Sports, Leisure and Entertainment insurance, we apply our expertise to make people's lives easier, for agents and clients alike. We offer best-in-class coverage that is designed to meet the unique needs of the industries we serve.

Our outstanding customer service is backed by the knowledge and know-how that insures the nation's largest Sports, Leisure and Entertainment organizations. We're intentional about how and when we collect information, to make renewal as easy as possible for years to come. When you work with us, you receive personal attention from a team that you come to know on a first-name basis. And when you have a question, we respond in a matter of hours or days—not weeks or months.

Help your clients spend more time doing what they love, and less time worrying about it. That's what special feels like at American Specialty.

/ Whether it's the first pitch or the final encore, we've got what you need.

We provide high-quality insurance products, claims management and risk services to protect and serve clients involved in the Sports, Leisure and Entertainment industries. As an appointed agent, you receive personalized attention from a team that has your back.
